

macroeconomics 5th edition williamson pdf

Over five editions, Macroeconomics has remained among the most popular intermediate texts in the field. The Sixth Edition incorporates the most current data and theory into the text's signature single-model approach, clearly demonstrating the real-world applications of macroeconomic theory.

Macroeconomics: Economic Growth, Fluctuations, and Policy

Macroeconomics (from the Greek prefix makro-meaning "large" + economics) is a branch of economics dealing with the performance, structure, behavior, and decision-making of an economy as a whole. This includes regional, national, and global economies. Macroeconomists study aggregated indicators such as GDP, unemployment rates, national income, price indices, and the interrelations among the ...
